Super Prestige Series 40 West Wales Independents Part 2

This is the second book covering independent bus operators in West Wales and follows on from the previous volume featuring Cardigan and Newport. In this book, the author, Les Dickinson will attempt to describe the introduction and development of the passenger transport providers of the northern foothills of the Preseli hills. He will focus on two areas, Crymych and Maenclochog exploring in detail the independent operators which worked throughout these villages. In the chapters on Crymych the author details the histories of three larger independents and one smaller entity. The three larger are: David John Jones, Edwards Brothers and Midway Motors (formerly Rees & Phillips). The smaller, and short-lived operator featured is Frenni Coaches (Beardwell & Collins). The pages describing the bus scene in Maenclochog cover three early pioneers in the region: Arthur Williams of Maenclochog, Ivor Williams of Trelech and Morgan Brothers of Llanfyrnach and their companies' progression. Softback.

Author: Les Dickinson

Les, who recently retired after 45 years in retail management, has a life-long interest in buses and coaches which started in his home town of Sheffield. His career took him to many towns of England and Wales but the last thirty-two years have been spent in Cardigan where his interest in transport has encouraged him further his studies which have resulted in several books on the local transport operators.
